GGA BOARD MEMBERS: “Governor Cuomo is taking our airports out of the 'middle seat' and placing them on the top of the priorities list”

NEW YORK NEW JERSEY – The board members of the Global Gateway Alliance today released the following statement praising Governor Cuomo's plan to bring a new focus on modernizing the region's airports:

“For decades, New York City airport modernization has been squeezed out by budget shortfalls and other infrastructure projects. Today, Governor Cuomo is taking our airports out of the 'middle seat' and placing them on the top of the priorities list.

“New York airports are vital to our region's economy and brand, but they have gone from the best in the nation to the worst on survey after survey. The Governor is right to put his Administration's energy and focus behind fixing this problem.

“The Global Gateway Alliance business, labor, academia and government coalition was formed to address exactly the problems Governor Cuomo highlighted today – and to partner with his Administration to help. We're thrilled our mantle is being taken up at the highest levels and we look forward to working with the Governor and his team to make the vision of world-class airports a reality for our world-class city.”
